

“MIR” Forum Venue

Moscow Gostiny Dvor is one of the most prestigious exhibition venues of Russia which frequently hosts events of federal significance. It is located in the very centre of Moscow, at 4, Ilyinka Street, just 150 meters away from the Kremlin, near Ploschad Revolutsii, Kitay-Gorod and Teatralnaya metro stations.

Venue for prestigious events

Every year Moscow Gostiny Dvor hosts a large number of social and cultural events, kids days and festivals, municipal days and state holiday festivities, international exhibitions and shows, concerts and fashion shows. Mayor's Annual New Year Ball is held here. Here sang Montserrat Caballe, Hoze Kareras, Sissel. "Orthodox Rus" exhibition and "Marine Industry of Russia" International Forum also took place at Gostiny Dvor.

Convenient Infrastructure Facilities

Total space of the venue – 82 000 m<sup>2</sup>, exhibition space – 14 000 m<sup>2</sup>. In the late 1995 Moscow Government initiated the renovation of Gostiny Dvor building, turning it into a modern business, cultural and trade facility. There are 8 restaurants, 3 banks and a great number of cash machines, shops and galleries. It is planned to build a hotel here, which will close the circle of hotels around the Kremlin.

Forum Exhibition included shipbuilding and ship repair branches of JSC "United Shipbuilding Corporation" and JSC "United Industrial Corporation" state corporations, ports, research and design enterprises of Moscow, Saint-Petersburg, Vyborg, Shlisselburg, Khabarovsk, Murmansk, Veliky Novgorod, Rostov-on-Don, Petrozavodsk, Yaroslavl, Moscow region, Nizhny Novgorod and Arkhangelsk regions and foreign companies of the UK, Germany, Spain, China, Poland, Turkey, Ukraine, Croatia, Finland.

"Marine Industry of Russia" Forum offers a diversified exhibition and a substantial business programme – the plenary meeting, workshops, presentations, seminars, round-table discussions and contest programmes.
